- Depending on the weather, the roads might be a challenge to drive and you might have to adjust your travel day(s) accordingly.
- Driving a four-wheel drive SUV makes the travel to the retreat easier.
- There are, harmless though, coyotes in the area.
- There might be flies at the house.
- The composting toilet does emit some odor, noticable in the bathroom.

please initial that you understood the nature of a retreat at the Montello Foundation
